CASE NUMBER: 4:10CR40065-001-JPG

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

X The defendant shall pay any financial penalty that is imposed by this judgment and that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release. The defendant shall pay the fine in installments of $100.00 per month or ten percent of her net monthly income, whichever is greater, over a period of 54 months, to commence 30 days after release from imprisonment. Restitution shall be paid joint and several with the codefendant, Richard Anderson. The victim's recovery is limited to the amount of their loss and the defendant's liability for restitution ceases if and when the victims receive full restitution. The defendant is required to notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in her economic circumstances that would affect her ability to pay restitution.

X The defendant shall provide the probation officer and the Financial Litigation Unit of the United States Attorney's Office with access to any requested financial information. The defendant is advised that the probation office may share financial information with the Financial Litigation Unit.

X The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, judgments, and/or any other anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation. The defendant shall immediately notify the probation officer of the receipt of any indicated monies.

X Based on the defendant's history of substance abuse, the Court is exercising its discretion and ordering that the defendant shall participate as directed and approved by the probation officer in treatment for narcotic addiction, drug dependence, or alcohol dependence, which includes urinalysis or other drug detection measures and which may require residence and/or participation in a residential treatment facility. The number of tests shall not exceed 52 tests in a one year period. Any participation will require complete abstinence from all alcoholic beverages. The defendant shall pay for the costs associated with substance abuse counseling and/or testing based on a copay sliding fee scale approved by the United States Probation Office. Copay shall never exceed the total costs of counseling.

X Based upon a history of weapon possession, the defendant shall submit her person, residence, real property, place of business, computer, electronic communication and data storage device or media, or vehicle and any other property under her control to a search, conducted by the United States Probation Officers and such other law enforcement personnel as the probation officer may deem advisable and at the direction of the United States Probation Officer, at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition.

X Based upon a previous mental health diagnosis, the defendant shall undergo a mental health assessment and participate in a program of mental health treatment, as directed by the probation officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the probation officer. This may include a psychiatric evaluation and may require participation in a medication regimen. The defendant shall follow the medication regimen as prescribed by a licensed practitioner, at the direction of the probation officer. The defendant shall pay for the costs associated with services rendered for counseling and/or testing based on a copay sliding fee scale, as directed and approved by the United States Probation Office. The copay shall never exceed the total costs of counseling.

X Defendant shall submit within 15 days for drug urinalysis, not to exceed 52 tests in a one year period.
